

July 08 Events – Printer Format

July's Featured Artist, Ron Harrison: From Meadows to Marines to Things In-Between v1.5

These watercolors have a special timeless quality that is especially poignant in the fleeting joy of summer. Harrison's work will hang at Cornerstone from July 9th through August 10th.

Wednesday July 2nd at 7pm

Free Investment Seminar with Ken Nagy: Creating Fireworks in Your Portfolio with Alternative Assets

Learn how to branch into different types of assets that don't move in sync with U.S. stocks. This strategy has delivered not just blowout returns but lower volatility for large investors; find how this same strategy can benefit YOU!

Friday July 11th at 7pm

From Meadows to Marines to Things In-Between v1.5: Reception for Ron Harrison

View the exhibition of these charming watercolors and meet the artist.

Saturday July 12th at 10:30 am

CB Kids presents Yetti Frenkel and Andre the Famous Harbor Seal

Award-winning children's author Yetti Frenkel tells the captivating tale of Andre, the famous Rockport, Maine harbor seal. Snack and activity provided.

Saturday July 12th at 7pm

Paul Sherman and Big Screen Boston

This "new essential Boston reference book" (Joel Brown) profiles movies set in Boston and its surrounds, with critical commentary and movie trivia. Join in the discussion with your nomination for the worst Boston accent by a non-native actor!

Wednesday July 17th 11am – 1pm

Dare Foster Care Information Table

Dare Family Services provides information on becoming a foster parent. Make a difference in the life of a child!

Thursday July 17th at 7pm

Open Bluegrass Jam with The Merrimack Rounders

Join the Merrimack Rounders for this Open Jam...come play along or just enjoy the music!

Saturday July 26th at 1pm

Tabatha D'Agata and Ick the Stick and other Yes, I Can Read! Nature Books for Early Readers

This Lawrence, MA native brings her energetic and interactive presentation on storytelling to Cornerstone Books! Perfect for Early Readers (ages 4-8), Tabatha will also speak about (and sign copies of) her series of nature books.

Tuesday July 29th at 7pm

Brunonia Barry and The Lace Reader

The long-awaited Harper Collins release of this blockbuster novel set in Salem is here! Kirkus calls the book "Gripping...beautifully written and absolutely engrossing". Join us as Brunonia reads from and speaks about The Lace Reader, sample lace reader Aunt Eva's "Difficult Tea" (courtesy of New Civilitea), and meet the author. Reading followed by Q&A and book signing. This event will be held at The Seamen's Visitor Center at The House of the Seven Gables, 115 Derby Street, Salem MA. PLEASE NOTE: Due to limited space, passes will be required. Passes are free and available at Cornerstone Books and The House of the Seven Gables.

Tuesday July 29th at 8:30pm

Benefit Reception for The Lace Reader author Brunonia Barry

All proceeds from this wine and cheese reception will benefit HAWC (Help for Abused Women and their Children). Join in Salem's literary event of the summer! This event will be held in The Gardens at The House of the Seven Gables, 115 Derby Street, Salem, MA. Tickets are $20 and are available at Cornerstone Books.

Thursday July 31st at 7pm

Kate Clifford Lawson and The Assassin's Accomplice

This thrillingly-told tale is the story of Mary Elizabeth Jenkins Surratt, a forty-three-year-old widow, devout Catholic, boardinghouse owner, Confederate sympathizer – and willing accomplice in the assassination of Abraham Lincoln!